ON MONDAY,

AND DURING THE WEEK, WE WILL INAUGURATE

Our Riddance Sale

Our Riddance Sale prevent overcrowding our even now too small quarters for carloads of s which will soon be upon us. # Our Riddance Sale will cause our patrons to exclaim, "That the People's Store, when it must, will loss money to sell goods!" or, in other words, are ready to return to the pubble some recompense for the public patronage it has received in the pat. We find the necessity to carry out the plans mapped out by our New York buyer.

uyer.

Look to the local columns of this paper and post yourself of the goods of desire to rid ourselves of. They will be cheerfully sold to you, and what may go, will not have any reason to exceed the control of the "GOOD RIDDANCE!"
